About BUI

Brindavan Udyog (India) is a company which came into existence during the late 1970s with a vision to revive the dilapidated grain milling industry. This period saw the heap of crops being perished without adequate processing facilities. It was at this time Mr Bithal Nath Gupta and Mr Dwarika Prasad Gupta came forward with an innovative idea to import milling machinery and its accessories from Western countries and provide it to Indian mills. It was one of the milestones of India's Milling Industry and ever since then Brindavan Udyog (India) is one of the key names associated with the Milling Industry in India.
